About McCoy Corporation

McCoy Corporation is a well-established services and equipment provider focused primarily on the global oil and gas sector. McCoy has three operating segments: Energy Products & Services (“EP&S”), Trailer Manufacturing (“TLM”) and Truck & Trailer Products & Services (“TTP&S”). McCoy’s EP&S segment is the leading worldwide manufacturer of tubular make-up power tongs used on drill rigs to thread sections of drill and casing pipe together. EP&S also manufactures vacuum tanks, hydrovac systems, dies and inserts for oilfield tools, make/break machines and produces wear-reducing coatings for drilling tools and oil sands equipment. TLM is a leading Western Canadian manufacturer of custom heavy duty trailers serving the global oil and gas, forestry, construction, infrastructure and transportation markets. TTP&S is engaged in heavy duty truck and trailer repairs, maintenance, parts distribution and sales. McCoy employs approximately 700 individuals in Alberta, British Columbia and Louisiana.
